If the applicant cannot present one of the documents listed in (a) above, the following may be relied upon to establish U.S. citizenship or U.S. national status:

- (1) Religious record recorded in one of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico (on or after January 13, 1941), Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands (on or after January 17, 1917), American Samoa, or the Northern Mariana Islands (on or after November 4, 1986, Northern Mariana Islands local time) (unless the applicant was born to foreign diplomats residing in such a jurisdiction) within three months after birth showing that the birth occurred in such jurisdiction and the date of birth or the individual's age at the time the record was made;

- (6) Any other document that establishes a U.S. place of birth or otherwise indicates U.S. nationality (e.g., a contemporaneous hospital record of birth in that hospital in one of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico (on or after January 13, 1941), Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands (on or after January 17, 1917), American Samoa, or the Northern Mariana Islands (on or after November 4, 1986, Northern Mariana Islands local time) (unless the applicant was born to foreign diplomats residing in such a jurisdiction);

c. Collective Naturalization

If the applicant cannot present one of the documents listed in (a) or (b) above, the following will establish U.S. citizenship for collectively naturalized individuals:

Puerto Rico:

- Evidence of birth in Puerto Rico on or after April 11, 1899 and the applicant's statement that he or she was residing in the U.S., a U.S. possession or Puerto Rico on January 13, 1941; or
- Evidence that the applicant was a Puerto Rican citizen and the applicant's statement that he or she was residing in Puerto Rico on March 1, 1917 and that he or she did not take an oath of allegiance to Spain.

U.S. Virgin Islands:

- Evidence of birth in the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the applicant's statement of residence in the U.S., a U.S. possession or the U.S. Virgin Islands on February 25, 1927;
- The applicant's statement indicating resident in the U.S. Virgin Islands as a Danish citizen on January 17, 1917 and residence in the U.S., a U.S. possession or the U.S. Virgin Islands on February 25, 1927, and that he or she did not make a declaration to maintain Danish citizenship; or
- Evidence of birth in the U.S. Virgin Islands and the applicant's statement indicating residence in the U.S., a U.S. possession or territory or the Canal Zone on June 28, 1932.

Northern Mariana Islands (NMI) (formerly part of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands (TTPI)):

- Evidence of birth in the NMI, TTPI citizenship and residence in the NMI, the U.S., or a U.S. territory or possession on November 3, 1986 (NMI local time) and the applicant's statement that he or she did not owe allegiance to a foreign state on November 4, 1986 (NMI local time);
- Evidence of TTPI citizenship, continuous residence in the NMI since before November 3, 1981 (NMI local time), voter registration prior to January 1, 1975 and the applicant's statement that he or she did not owe allegiance to a foreign state on November 4, 1986 (NMI local time); or
- Evidence of continuous domicile in the NMI since before January 1, 1974 and the applicant's statement that he or she did not owe allegiance to a foreign state on November 4, 1986 (NMI local time). Note: If a person entered the NMI as a nonimmigrant and lived in the NMI since January 1, 1974, this does not constitute continuous domicile and the individual is not a U.S. citizen

d. Derivative Citizenship

If the applicant cannot present one of the documents listed in a or b above, the following may be used to make a determination of derivative U.S. citizenship:

Applicant born abroad to two U.S. citizen parents: Evidence of the U.S. citizenship of the parents and the relationship of the applicant to the parents, and evidence that at least one parent resided in the U.S. or an outlying possession prior to the applicant's birth.

Applicant born abroad to a U.S. citizen parent and a U.S. non-citizen national parent: Evidence that one parent is a U.S. citizen and that the other is a U.S. non-citizen national, evidence of the relationship of the applicant to the U.S. citizen parent, and evidence that the U.S. citizen parent resided in the U.S., a U.S. possession, American Samoa or Swain's Island for a period of at least one year prior to the applicant's birth.

Applicant born out of wedlock abroad to a U.S. citizen mother: - Evidence of the U.S. citizenship of the mother, evidence of the relationship to the applicant and, for births on or before December 24, 1952, evidence that the mother resided in the U.S. prior to the applicant's birth or, for births after December 24, 1952, evidence that the mother had resided, prior to the child's birth, in the U.S. or a U.S. possession for a period of one year.

Applicant born in the Canal Zone or the Republic of Panama:

- A birth certificate showing birth in the Canal Zone on or after February 26, 1904 and before October 1, 1979 and evidence that one parent was a U.S. citizen at the time of the applicant's birth; or
- A birth certificate showing birth in the Republic of Panama on or after February 26, 1904 and before October 1, 1979 and evidence that at least one parent was a U.S. citizen and employed by the U.S. government or the Panama Railroad Company or its successor in title.

In all other situations in which an applicant claims to have a U.S. citizen parent and an alien parent, or claims to fall within one of the above categories, but is unable to present the listed documentation:

- If the applicant is in the U.S., the applicant should contact the local U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service office for determination of U.S. citizenship;
- If the applicant is outside the U.S., the applicant should contact the State Department for a U.S. citizenship determination.

e. Adoption of Foreign-Born Child by U.S. Citizen

- If the birth certificate shows a foreign place of birth and the applicant cannot be determined to be a naturalized citizen under any of the above criteria, obtain other evidence of U.S. citizenship;
- Because foreign-born adopted children do not automatically acquire U.S. citizenship by virtue of adoption by U.S. citizens, the applicant should contact the local U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service office for a determination of U.S. citizenship, if the applicant provides no evidence of U.S. citizenship.

f. U.S. Citizenship By Marriage

A woman acquired U.S. citizenship through marriage to a U.S. citizen before September 22, 1922. Provide evidence of U.S. citizenship of the husband, and evidence showing the marriage occurred before September 22, 1922. Note: If the husband was an alien at the time of the marriage, and became naturalized before September 22, 1922, the wife also acquired naturalized citizenship. If the marriage terminated, the wife maintained her U.S. citizenship if she was residing in the U.S. at that time and continued to reside in the U.S.

ARIZONA BOARD OF APPRAISAL EXPERIENCE LOG

NAME: _____

Upon receipt of the application, not less than three (3) appraisal reports will be selected by staff from the Experience Log and requested in writing from the applicant. The addendum or certification page of each report should contain trainee's name and specify how trainee significantly contributed to the report. The applicant must claim appraisal experience on the Experience Log as prescribed by the Board. The Experience Log must be filled out according to the instructions below. Include in the Experience Log only appraisal reports which can be supported and are documented.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE EXPERIENCE LOG:

1. Type or print all information in ink only.
2. Entries must be made for each property claimed, as follows:

— DATE: Indicate in chronological order the month and year of each appraisal report claimed (i.e. 1/2007). Use only one date for each appraisal. Duplications will not be accepted. Experience must have been acquired within ten years immediately preceding the filing of the application.

— STREET ADDRESS/CITY/STATE: Indicate the street address, city and state location of the appraised property. Trainee should list sufficient information so that the report can be retrieved for the review by the Board.

— TYPE OF PROPERTY: For residential appraisals, indicate the residential form number, i.e., 1004. Forms 704, 1004D, 1075, 2000, 2000A, 2055 (EXTERIOR ONLY), 2065, 2070, 2075, and 2095 are not acceptable. Form 2055 with an interior inspection is acceptable (before 11/2/05); however, a cost approach must be in trainee's work file, and must be submitted with the appraisal report. For nonresidential appraisals, indicate "N".

— WORK PERFORMED BY TRAINEE: Indicate the significant contribution stated in the appraisal report that was completed by the trainee. The term "significant" means the contribution must be of substance to the development of the assignment results. A trainee who merely collects or provides data for use in the analysis does not provide significant appraisal assistance. Examples of contributions made by trainees that constitute significant appraisal assistance include the identification of comparable properties and data, inspection of the subject property and comparables, estimating accrued depreciation, or forecasting income and expenses.

— INSPECTION: Indicate whether trainee inspected the property. Supervising appraiser must personally supervise the entire physical inspection of each appraised property with the trainee.

— SCOPE OF REVIEW AND SUPERVISION OF SUPERVISING APPRAISER: Indicate how trainee was supervised by supervising appraiser.

— ACTUAL TIME: Indicate the actual contribution time trainee spent in preparation of the report in increments of quarter hours; i.e., one quarter hour (15 minutes) is .25; one half hour (30 minutes) is .50 and three quarters hour (45 minutes) is .75; one and one quarter hour is 1.25. The time spent driving to and from an appraisal assignment ("drive time") may qualify as appraisal experience if it is considered to be a part of the appraisal process.

— SIGNATURE AND STATE LICENSURE/CERTIFICATION NUMBER OF SUPERVISING APPRAISER: The supervising appraiser must sign each page of the Experience Log acknowledging approval of the information provided. An electronic signature will not be accepted. OBTAIN AS EACH PAGE IS COMPLETED.

— GRAND TOTAL: Indicate the grand total of all actual experience hours on the LAST PAGE of the experience log.

— WORKFILES: Indicate the name and address of the person(s) in possession of the workfiles of the appraisals listed on each page.

— SUPERVISING APPRAISER: Print the name, address, and license/certificate number of the supervising appraiser(s) for the appraisals listed on each page.

— APPLICANT NAME AND DATE SUBMITTED: Print trainee's name and fill in the date trainee submitted the Experience Log on each page.
